

Subject Leader for History

WORLD STUDIES DEPARTMENT

Permanent Full Time from September 2017

Salary according to experience + TLR 2c £2640

We are seeking to appoint an outstanding/good Teacher of History to join this highly motivated; hard working and forward thinking department. The post requires a History specialist to be responsible for the development of a History curriculum that excites and enthuses students whilst preparing them for the new AQA GCSE specification. As the main focus of this role is to develop the current History curriculum it would be suited to a teacher looking to take their first step into further developing their skills. The successful candidate will work closely with the Head of World Studies and as such will have many opportunities to grow. Suitability:

- The post would suit someone with at least 1 years teaching experience.
- Evidence of consistently good/outstanding teaching and learning within the classroom.
- Evidence of results; progress and attainment across Key Stage Three and Key Stage Four.

How to Apply: Application packs are available on the school website or apply online at <http://murraypark.derby.sch.uk/home/vacancies> or contact HR Department on 01332 515921 for further information.

A fully completed application form is required with a letter (no more than two typed A4 sides) which outlines previous experience and what skills you can bring to the post.

Closing date for all applications is Wednesday 24th of May at 9am

Interviews on Friday the 26th of May.
